

Deposition Summary

Every litigation lawyer knows how tiring it can be to read through pages of deposition testimony in order to find the germane to the issue at hand. The process can be time-consuming & pains taking. A deposition summary can be a helpful hand in this task. What is Deposition Summary?

A deposition summary is a compact archive which gives a review, so that the whole statement doesn't need to be read thoroughly to find the key components out of the testimony. In short it contains all the vital data from the deposition. Once the deposition taken is referred to in answer structure format, it runs into pages. The attorneys need to peruse the whole transcript which includes facts and non-relevant elements which results in spending more time.

Our team of experts is trained to making comprehensive summaries reflecting the true testimony without manipulating or losing any information. Every summary passes through accuracy test.
